ANY MORE CHILDREN WANT DIVORCES? NO

"Any more children who want divorces?" asked Chancellor Peres Monday, after he had granted to a young woman and her husband a divorce. The chancellor looked around the courtroom and smiled at a little boy and girl, about four years of age, respectively, and asked the deputy if they were married and wanted a divorce.

A divorce was granted Clara McMullen, after she testified that her husband, A. K. McMullen, now in Rockwell, Texas, had treated her cruelly and inhumanly, had sought to cut her with a razor and had abandoned her, telling her he would never return again. Asked how she prevented him from carrying up with the razor, she said she reached in his pocket and took the razor away from him.

Mrs. McMullen said she married when she was 15 years old. She was 18 and her husband about 20 when he deserted her. She also declared that her husband unjustly accused her of infidelity. Clara Akers, another pretty-looking woman, was granted a decree of divorce from Paul Akers. She told the chancellor that her husband cursed and abused her and was drunk most of the time. He told her to go home and stay there, she said, so she took him to his word. The husband did not appear to contest the case.

LANDSLIDE HOLDS UP TRAINS AT JACKSON

JACKSON, Tenn., Dec. 23 (Sp.)—Train service out of Jackson on the M. & N. railroad is stopped by a mammoth landslide occurring during the last three days of the past week. At Barrett's divide, a large cut having a depth of more than 100 feet and about 100 miles south of the city. The earth crumbled on either side of the railroad, it is stated, covering the tracks with a mass of approximately 200 yards to a depth of 30 or 40 feet.

Both the corporation officials and the federal management will proceed at once making every effort to clear the track and resume operations over the northern end of the road as soon as possible, it was stated by the local authorities today. In the event the removal of the earth is delayed longer than is expected, trains will be placed in operation between Jackson and the divide and connecting with the trains that still are in operation south of the cut.

Barrett's divide is the largest excavation project made in the construction of the new road and was the scene of a smaller landslide several weeks ago. It is believed that when the road is again cleared no further trouble will be experienced at this place.

Ten thousand invitations have been issued. Although the police are not running this event, they have much to do with it. It was planned by the People's Liberty chorus, Frank Fogarty, comedian, will play Santa Claus, with 12 assistants. Thirty clowns will join with the best grades of clown. Turkeys topped the list, fine Maryland birds selling at 65 to 75 cents a pound.

JAYNES HOME IN JACKSON RUINED BY BLAZE

JACKSON, Tenn., Dec. 23 (Sp.)—The home of Levi Jaynes, 139 East Grand avenue, owned by his mother, Mrs. E. P. Jaynes, was almost totally destroyed by a fire of unknown origin, discovered about 12:45 o'clock yesterday morning by a city patrolman in that vicinity. The occupants of the house were away from home.

The fire department made a prompt response to the midnight call, but being at a considerable distance from the fire station and having gained considerable headway before discovered, the fire had practically destroyed the house by the time the firemen arrived.

The flames had spread to an adjoining house, owned by Philip Marks and occupied by J. E. Burns, and it was necessary for the ladders to make a hard fight to save this building.

Several boxes were turned on the base of the flames and both fires were soon extinguished. The damage resulting to the latter residence was approximately $50, which was covered by insurance.

The residence occupied by Mr. Jaynes was insured for $1,200, which is estimated to be several hundred dollars less than the actual value of the house.

The furniture in the home was insured for $250. As the occupants were away from home and the flames had enveloped the house before they were discovered both the house and the furniture were almost totally destroyed. No fire was left in the house when the family home, it is stated, and the origin of the flames remains a mystery.

XMAS TREES SELLING FOR FIVE CENTS IN CHICAGO

CHICAGO, Dec. 23.—Christmas trees today sold for as little as 5 cents, "take your pick," in some places. The prices ranged up to $1.65, with the exception of a tree on the market for $2.00. As the general demand for Santa Claus to pay $3, first demanded, not only had driven down the price but resulted in 20,000 trees being distributed free and an additional 22 carloads being offered today.

Traders had their trees here in plenty of time, but retailers found that people remembered last year's high prices and were not buying," said B. A. Little, an assistant general agent of the Chicago & Northwestern railroad, in explaining why nearly a score of carloads of trees were not accepted by the public.

The firm kept holding the supply on the tracks waiting for higher prices. The higher prices did not show up and with freight amounting to nearly $100 a day and demurrage mounting, wholesalers refused to accept the shipment.

The trees were rescued from dumps, where they were ordered by the railroad, by city officials and "good fellows."

AUTO LIGHT ORDINANCE ENFORCED IN JACKSON

JACKSON, Tenn., Dec. 23 (Sp.)—The city ordinance prohibiting automobiles from being driven on the streets without both front and rear lights burning will be rigidly enforced in the future, it was stated by Chief of Police Alex Stegall today. A defendant was arraigned in city court this morning on the charge of driving his car without lights properly lighted and was dismissed upon the plea of the defendant that a second offense would not be committed.

Numerous violations of this ordinance have occurred recently, states Chief Stegall, and the defendants have offered a common excuse that their lights got out of commission after driving their cars on the streets. In view of the danger to which the public is subjected from this practice, no excuses will be accepted hereafter, declares Chief Stegall, and a diligent search will be made to rid the streets of the unlighted cars.
